

June's second week shows no diminution of weddings their number seeming rather to be on the increase as the witching days go on. Besides these there has been a generous sprinkling of other social events, helping to make a delightful record.

. . .

On Wednesday the wedding of Miss Mary Ivers and James T. Finlan took place, the ceremony being performed at the home of the brile's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Finlan, Bishop Scanlan officiating. The rooms were beaudecorated by Huddart, the drawingroom in white and green with roses, carnations, ferns and smilax used in profusion. The music room was in red, American beauty roses and carna-tions being used; the hall in pink, and the library in pink and white. The bride was gowned in a beautiful costume of white satin with overdress of lace, and the bodice was also trimmed with the rose point, and had a yoke of white point de esprit studded with tiny pearls. A veil of point lace applique and boquet of bride's roses completed the costume. The bridesmaid, Miss Anna Wall of New York, was also gowned in white and carried pink roses. Mr. Frank Murphy of New York was best man. After the reception to relatives and friends, Mr. and Mrs. Finlan left for an eastern trip, after which they will go to Butte to reside.

Another charming bridal event of Wednesday was the wedding of Miss Sadle McChrystal and Mr. Edward C. Parsons, the ceremony being performed at 7:30 o'clock by Rev. William Pailen arkl a large reception being held later The event took place at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Sarah A. Mc-Chrystal, the rooms being beautifully decorated for the occasion. The drawingroom was in green and pink, the bri-dal party standing under a canopy of smilax and pink roses, and strands of green being looped back with broad pink satin ribbon. The library and hall were in red and in the diningroom red also prevailed, the color being carried out in roses and light shades. Mrs. Harry Knight served coffee, and Miss Lena Preston presided at the punch bowl.: A bevy of young girls, friends of the bride, assisted in entertaining. The bride wore an elaborate creation of Irish point lace over taffeta with trimmings of white chiffon, and a veil of white point d'esprit festooned with or white point desprit festooned with orange blossoms. A boquet of bride's roses finished the costume. The bridesmaids, Miss June McIntyre and Miss Katherine Kanters, were gowned in charming costumes of pink mull and carried pink roses, and the little flower girls, Frances McChrystal and Elsle Parsons, were in white. At the appointed hour the party entered the room to the strains of the Lohengren march, played by Christensen's orchestra, Arthur Parsons and Christopher Diehl first, followed by the bridesmalds, and the little flower girls. Then came the bride on the arm of her brother, John H. McChrystal, who gave her away. The "Andantino" was played during the ceremony. The bride's mother wore a handsome costume of gray silk with trimmings of applique. She was assisted in receiving by Mr. Ray will go to Mount Pleasant.

lightful lawn parties of the season was given at the home of Hon, John Henry Smith Tuesday evening by Clare Smith, Sarah Williams, Than Smith and Dale Pitt, in honor of Nick Smith, and Will Nuttail, who leave soon for missions to Europe A capyage was missions to Europe. A canvas was stretched for dancing and scores of colored lights were arranged to give light to the merry dancers. Cozy corners were placed about the lawn and in the house, where roses were used profusely. Dancing was enjoyed until a late hour, when refreshments were served. Those present to greet the guests of honor were: Sarah Williams, Clare Smith, Olive Gay. Bessie Felt, Clare Smith, Olive Gay. Bessle Felt, Emily Whitney, Dorothy Dwyer, Hazel Beatlo, Geneve Clark, Leonora Nuttall, May Reid, Sarah Smith, Bee Hyde, Cathle Dougall, Elizabeth Palmer, Mayme Parker, Ethel Rogers, Bess Pike, Claire Dougall, Ruby Young, Ivy Young, Hazel Love, Mag Summerhays, Lou McClelland, Edna Wiscomb, Dale Pitt, Than Smith, Alma Clayton, Cal-yin Pitt, Dud Swan, Joe Smith, Art Gates, Will James, Sid Saville, Bob Wil-son, Dave Sprount, Art Bolton, George Smith, Claude Cannon, LeRoy Bourne, Harry Bero, Harry Moore, Robert e's roses. Marsha, Mark McChrystal, Roy Cham-William berlain, Marsena Foster.

One of the prettiest and most de- | McQuarrie. The bride looked excep- | being laid for right. The guests were tionally pretty in a gown of duchess | Misses Vida Richards, Annetic Fergulace, over white satin, and carried at torn, Florence Grant, Luvera Snow, shower bouquet of bride's roses. Miss | Bob Ellerbeck, Kate Groo, Alta Raw-Lillian Stewart, sister of the bride, who acted as bridesmaid, was gowned in rose pink crepe de chine and carried

> Miss Pearl Weiler was hostess at a pretty Kensington on Tuesday, about 36 guests being present. Tables were spread on the lawn and porch, and refreshments served there, Present were: Misses Sara Reid, Park, Edith Hale Bootes, Dalsy Raybould, Ivie Thomas, Margie Miller, Annie Adams, Carrie Sappington, Ella Mantor, Laura Schoppe, Laura Bird, Marge Ellerbeck, May Billings, Goldie Dix, Stella Dix, June McIntyre, Lucile Taylor, Mame Sharp, Virgle Breeden, Mamie Porter, Florence Stevenson, Sadle McChrystal, Leda Rawlins, Gertrude Myres, Chetch Wells, Mrs. McFarlane of Denver.

Mr. and Mrs. William T. Benson gave a delightful "63" party on Monday night in honor of Mrs. Robert H. Hampton and Miss Katherine Kanters. The rooms were beautifully decorated The rooms were beautifully decorated with roses, the score cards were Indian She was attended by Mrs. William Armstrong as matron of honor, and two little flower girls, Misses Afton and Emma Harris. Mr. Waldemar Van Cott, brother of the groom, was best at the home of the bride's parents, Mrs. Verse, Mr. and Mrs. Duncan, Mr.

Miss Beryl James will leave next week for her home,

Mrs. F. A. Vincent was hostess on Thursday of one of the prettiest luncheons of the week. It was given in honor of Mrs. I. B. Shattuck, of Chicago, the guest of Mrs. W. A. Nelden, and the others present were Mrs. Nelden, Mrs. William Jennings, Mrs. C. D. Moore and Mrs. Van Arman.

Mrs. M. A. Breeden will leave next week for a trip to Portland.

Mrs. Fred Coombs and Miss Coombs of Aspen, Colo., who have been visiting Mrs. Egbert Roberts, left on Thursday for their home.

Miss Goddard and Miss Alice Rowe left on Wednesday for Portland where they will spend the summer. Mrs. Barth and son have arrived at Miss Emma Sanderson will leave on Sunday night for Portland, Ore., where she will henceforth reside.

Fort Douglas.

Mrs. Belden was hostess at a delightful afternoon party yesterday. Miss Preston entertained at luncheon

Mrs. Edwin F. Holmes will entertain at a reception next Friday at her home. Mrs. Rossiter entertained informally on Thursday night.

Mrs. Susa Snow Young of Ogden is visiting in the city. Mrs. Alice Tomlinson has gone to Evanston for the summer. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wilkes are at home with Maj. and Mrs. Wilkes on Fifth East street.

Miss Amy Black of Marshall, Mo., is here to spend the summer with her sister, Mrs. Jerrold R. Letcher.

Mrs. E. P. Jennings has gone to Chi-. . . The Daughters of Utah Pioneers will meet on Tuesday, June 24, with Mrs. I. M. Sears at her home in Waterloo.

Mr. George Lawrence has gone to New York. Mrs. Bennion entertained the Author's club on Thursday at her home in Taylorsville, a delightful time being Mrs. G. B. Pfoutz entertained the Card club yesterday at her home.

Miss Katherine Moffat will leave for Denver the last of the month for an extended visit, Mrs. F. B. McFarlane and little son Lloyd, of Denver, who are the guests of Mrs. William C. Coulson, leave on Friday for their home.

Miss Annie Adams and Miss Dalsy Raybould have gone to Bingham for

Mrs. Harry Knowles and Miss Cor-delia Green left on Wednesday for Como lake, where they will be the guests of Miss Bianche Chadwick till Mrs. C. H. Bassett and children have gone to Idaho to visit relatives during the summer.

Miss Kathleen Anderson has returned. . . .

Miss Pauline Groo will spend the summer in Park City.

Mis Claudia Scofleld and Miss Ins Rudy were hostesses at a delightful Kensington on Thursday. Milton Sprague will leave on Saturday for San Francisco. Mrs. T. R. Ellerbeck has been visiting her sister, Mrs. J. A. Tupper of Poca-

Miss Katherine Kanters leaves on Sunday for Macatina Park, Mich.

Mr. John Van Brunt has returned

The wedding of Miss Agnes May Leatham and Mr. William A. Bess will take place Wednesday, June 25, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hamlett Evans, 850 west North Temple street.

Mrs. Joseph Bowyer and daughter Eva, of Phoenix, Ariz., will spend the summer in the city as the guests of Mrs. W. H. Wikinson.

Misses Annie Adams and Dalsy Ray-bould are visiting friends at Bingham. Mrs. E. A. Wedgwood and children are spending a few days in Provo.

Mrs. Webber and Miss Webber have discontinued their Mondays at home until September.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wilkes are at Fifth East street.

Miss Valentine R. Murphy and Miss Stella Watson have gone to Chicago to spend the summer.

The Misses Dysart have gone to Seattle to spend the vacation .

Mrs. J. T. Kingsbury will leave shortly for Malad, ida, where she will spend a few weeks.

Mrs. Arthur A Smith, the mother of Mrs. Ira H. Lewis and Mr. Benner X. Smith, and widow of the late Judge Smith of the Illinois courts, is in the city and will spend the summer with her daughter.

Miss Paden of Springville is visiting ther brother. Rev. W. M. Paden, of this city.

Miss Helen A. Burton returned from Monticello seminary this week, and will visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Burton, during the summer. Miss Pearl Weller entertained in-formally on Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Elizabeth Meintyre will shortly return from the east.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Hoag are in Den-

Mrs. L. V. Rancke will eave shortly for an eastern trip. Mrs. Frank W. Ross will spend the summer in Idaho.

Mrs. A. L. Ostien will leave on Thursday morning for Montana, where she will spend the summer.

Dr. and Mrs. A. J. Hosmer enter-tained at a enchre party on Monday night, about 50 guests being present. The rooms were beautifully decorated with roses and ferns and the tallies had hand-painted flowers of the same design.

Mr. and Mrs. Morton French have gone to spend some time at the Annie Laurie mine.

feature of the evening. About 40 Lake, was an Ogden visitor this week guests enjoyed the affair.

Dr. John Niles of Pennsylvania is visiting his brother, Dr. H. D. Niles, of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Hedges entertained on Monday in honor of their son George, who leaves shortly for Japan.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Dunbar have taken one of the new Kearns' houses on First street. Mrs. A. R. Heywood of Ogden s' ithe guest of Miss Frances Phillips.

OGDEN SOCIAL NEWS.

One of the most brilliant social events of the season took place Mon-day evening, June 16, when Miss Emma E. Stevens and Mr. E. Paul Jones were married at the home of the bride's parents, No. 261 Twenty-sevent street, Bishop Robert McQuarrie Promptly at 8 o'clook in the evening the bride and groom entered the beau-Lillian Stevens as bridesmaid and Sidney O. Stevens as best man, sister and brother of the bride. As they entered and were taking their place beneath a beautiful floral arch, from which was suspended a large shower bodinet of roses. Ford's orchestra played very sweetly Mendelssohn's wedding march. Sweetly Mendelssohn's wedding march. After the impressive ceremony a short time was spent in extending congratus lations, and the 200 guests present were delightfully entertained with sweet music from the orchestra. A very dainty menu was served by Fryer, and champaign punch was served by the Misses Stevens, assisted by the B. & B. club, of which the bride was a member.

nember.
The bride looked exceptionally gown of charming in a beautiful gown of duchess lace over taffeta silk and car-ried bride's roses. The bridesmalds wore a pretty pink costume and carried

The hone was a profusion of sweet scented flowers. The double pariors were decorated with white roses and carnations, evergreens and palms. The reception room and hall were done in pink roses, ferns and paims, and the dining room in red roses and ever-

The bride is the daughter of Hon. Sidney Stevens, the well known im-plement dealer, and is one of Ogden's most charming and talented young ladies, and the groom is a highly es-teemed young man, in Superintendent Noble's office. They are both very popular in society. Mr. and Mrs. Jones left Tuesday morning at 1:30 over the Southern Pacific for a two weeks' pleasure trip to California, when they will return to Ogden and make their home at the Healy hotel. They received many beautiful and costly presents. The ladies of the Baptist church gave an enjoyable lawn social Wednesday evening, which was largely attended. Misses Severn and Allmendinger and Rev. Wright sang several solos.

The Child's Culture club held their meeting yesterday at the home of Mrs. S. S. Smith. A very interesting program was rendered.

Master Henry Volker was given a pleasant surprise party Wednesday evening at the pretty home of his parents on Twenty-seventh street. There were present about 30 of his young friends who had a very pleasant time, playing all kinds of games and listening to some music. Mrs. Volker served delicious refreshments.

Mrs. Judge H. P. Henderson, of Sait | California.

the guest of Mrs. H. H. Henderson at

The home of Messrs. Robert and Charles Shipley was the scene of a delightful party given Tuesday evening in honor of Prof. Charles Kent of Ogden and Wm. Vaughan of Butte, Ment The early part of the evening was spent in playing cards, the head ladies and gentleman's prizes being won by Mrs. Charles Kent and E. J.Partington, After cards a sumptuous supper was . . . and gentleman's prizes being won by Mrs. Charles Kent and E. J.Partington. After cards a sumptuous supper was served in the diningroom; the tables were prettily decorated with pink and red roses. The remainder of the eventual was spent in listening to some choice vocal selections by Prof. Kent and Mr. Vaughan. Those present were the following gentlemen with their wives: Prof. Charles Kent, William Kent, E. J. Partington, D. H. Ogden, Wm. Shipley, John Hallday, Henry Banmeister, Adam Gledhill, James Meseph Harbertson, Thomas B. Shipley, George D. Shipley, Robert Shipley, Mathew Shipley, Thomas Shipley, C. B. Shipley, Mesdames Merauda Pool, Isabell Pool, Dixon, James Empey, Smuthwaite, Wm. Shipley, Lee, Grandma Shipley, Misses Ada Pool, Sarah and Lizzie Shipley, Frances Stark, Lille Baumeister, Maggie and Bell, Shipley, Messrs, James Shipley, James Ghobill, E. S. King, James Kenney, George Shipley, William Vaughan, T. Smurthwaite, Wm. Haddenham, Robert Long, John Shipley and John Taylor.

A farewell ball was given last eve-A farewell built was given last evening in the First ward half in honor of Charles Stephens, who is to depart on a mission June 25 for the eastern states. The ball was largely attended.

Manager Beardsley has arranged for a vaudeville company to appear at Glenwood park commencing Monday night. The Elks lodge had an enjoy. able time at the park Thursday, Judge H. H. Rolapp and wife re-turned home this week from a pleas. ant trip through Oregon,

Walter A. Kerr returned home this week from a three years' mission in

Miss Minnie L. Bagley, the popular daughter of City Attorney John E. Bagley, was married Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents, to Mr. Thaddeus McNitt, a proments was a forder. Park F. J. inent young man of Ogden. Rev. E. I. Goshen officiated at the ceremony. The Goshen officiated at the ceremony. The bride wore a beautiful white gown, and carried brides roses. The home was very artistically decorated with roses, carnations, palms, etc. A sumptuous wedding repast was served in the diringroom. Mr. and Mrs. McNitt will make Ogden their future home, Miss Rozina D. Shaw and Mr. Lawrence W. Sherner, two highly esteemed young people of Ogden, were married in the Salt Lake temple Wednesday, Miss Edith Rapp and Mrs. Oscar Growe of Osage, Iowa, are visiting in Ogden with relatives and friends,

The Opal club of Salt Lake City has their annual excursion to Ogden canyon next Sunday.

Miss Ethel M. Smith and Mr. Chas. M. Freweiling were married Tuesday afternoon at the Episcopal church by Rev. W. E. Maison in the presence of a large circle of their friends. Mrs. Charles A. Nelson and Miss Florence Anderson returned home this week from an extended pleasure trip to

BROADCLOTH TAILOR SUIT.

Dr. and Mrs. Jack Keith gave a delightful musicale on Tuesday night in honor of Mrs. Thomas Biythe, their guest. The rooms were beautifully decorated and a guessing contest was a

MRS. SAMUEL T. SMALL.

BEE

Mrs. Samuel T. Small, who a rew days ago was Miss Etner sigsbee, daughter of the eminent naval captain, and a Washington belle of popularity, is now on her honeymoon with her happy husband. The latter is associate editor of the Atlanta Constitution. Mrs. Small is greatly interested in her husband's brary in pink and the hall in red. Assisting in serving in the dining room were Misses Florence Armstrong, Laura and Louise Madsen, Ray and Chambers, Miss Ethel Armstrong served

The fon.

M. H. Herbert anticipated.

A pretty and unique event of the week was the double wedding on Wednesday at the home of the brides' parents of Miss Chessie M. Bourgard and Mr. George F. Rigby, and Miss Lu-lu Grace Zourgard and Dr. Charles N. Ray of Mount Pleasant. The ceremony uniting each couple was performed by Rev. A. Simpkins, the couples standing in the parlor under an arch of white and green, roses and smilax being used with charming effect. The brides were attended by their sisters, Misses Ruth and May Bourgard, and the best men man. Preceding the ceremony the Lohengrin bridal chorus was played by Lambourne's orehestra, and during the service "Hearts and Flowers" was rendered. The decorations were profuse and artistic, the parlors being in plak and white, the diningroom and libride and groom with hearty congratulations and well in red. As-

It is probable that the Hon. Micha el H. Herbert, the newly appointed British ambassador to Washington, will not present his crelientials before late summer or early autumn. Above are latest portraits of the ambassador elect and his beautiful wife. The latter was formerly Miss Leila Wilson. She married the new ambassador in 1888, after meeting him in Europe. Mr. Herbert holds a distinguished record for dipiomatic service. He resigns his position as secretary to the British embassy at Parls to take his latest and more important office. He has also been secretary to the legations at Washington, The Hague and Rome. While in Washington Mr. Herbert was very popular in this country and his beautiful wife was always a great favorite at N ewport, so that their return is eagerly lations and well wishes.

The presents were many and they were very beautiful. Bishop Heber Iverson performed the ceremony at 8:45 o'clock. The bride wore white swiss, trimmed with satin, and carried bride's roses; Miss Laura Olsen acted as bridesmaid and Mr. Bert Bailey as as bridesmaid and Mr. Bert Bailey as best man, while little Ines Clive carried the ring. The bride was given away by her father, Mr. Emil Olsen.

After the ceremony, which was performed beneath a canopy of flowers and smilax, the family and many friends enjoyed a hearty repast at the "wedding supper." The floral decorations were profuse: the colors being pink and white. The late hours had come before the "company" dispersed, and the goodly feelings reached a climax, when the time arrived for taking leave, the final congratulations being most hearty and sincere. Mr. and Mrs. Clive will be at home after July 10.

. . . One of Wednesday's pretty weddings was that of Miss Winnifred V. Berry daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Berry and Mr. Arthur E. Hubbard, the cere mony taking place at the Central Christian church, with Rev. T. W. Pin-kerton officiating, and a reception fol-lowing afterward at the home of the bride's parents. Both the church and the home were beautifully decorated, roses palms and smilax being used in tasteful profusion. Miss Sophia Berry was maid of honor and Miss Helen Hubbard bridesmaid. Mr. Melvin Smith, of Cotorado Springs, being best man and Mr. Frank Wight grooms. man and Mr. Frank Wight groomsman. The bride and groom received many presents, among them a silver tea set from the members of the En-

The house was transformed into a bower with palms, ferns and roses, white pink and red being the colors used in parlors, reception room and dining room. In an artistic corner tempting champagne punch was served by the Misses Stevens assisted by the B, and O, club, of which the bride is a member, and strains of sweet music were furnished by Fourd's orchestra. In the dining room delicious retra. In the dining room delicious re-freshments were served by Fryer. Many and beautiful presents were received showing the high esteem in which the couple are heid. At midnight they left for a trip to southern California and will be at home after the Isa of July at Healy hotel,

Among the most delightful events of Among the most delightful events of the week was the dancing party given by Dr. and Mrs. Henry La Motte on Tuesday evening. The event was in honor of Miss Cist of Cincinnati, who is their guest, and about 100 guests were present. The parlors and dining room were thrown together and here dancing was enjoyed, and in other rooms ping-pong and other amuserooms ping-pong and other amuse-ments were indulged in. The porches were spread with rugs and poted polms and plants, and here junch was served in a pretty cosy corner arranged for the occasion. The lawn was bright with Japanese lanterns, and hammocks and couches arranged for hammocks and couches arrangel for the use of the guests. A delightful time was enjoyed by all present.

Miss Sadie McChrystal entertained the members of her bridal party at a dinner at the Tavern on Tuesday, ten guests being present. The table was laid in the green room and was beautifully decorated, sweet peas forming a centerpiece and candelabra being at

. . .

On Monday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents on Twenty seventh street the marriage of Mr. Ed ward Paul Jones, popular time-ke pe for Southern Paulfic and Miss Emma E Stevens, the beautiful and accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Stevens was solemnized by Bishop Robert

MrcMichael

Herbert

The June meeting of the Utah Wo-man's Press club will take place at the home of Mrs. Lydia Alder. It will be a Scotch evening, and the hostess, Mrs. Alder, will give a talk on her trip to Scotland, her daughter will recite a Scotch poem, and Scotch refresh-ments will be served,

The marriage of Mr. Alma C. Lambert, of this city, and Miss Mollie A. Woods, of Ogden, is announced to take lace in the Salt Lake Temple, Wednesday, June 25. The reception will be held in Ogden at the bride's home, Thursay, June 26. Mr. Lambert is an enterorising young business man of the ambert Paper company, and Miss Woods is the grand-daughter of Apos-tle Parley P. Pratt and a daughter of Architect Francis Woods of Ogden.

The Autumn Leaf club was delightully entertained by Miss Mattie But-er, Wednesday evening. Six games of progressive high-five were played, prizes being won by Miss Gertie Lienhard and Mr. Roy Barratt, and the consolations by Miss Alice Marks and Mr. Art Williams. Dainty refresh-ments were served, and the remainder the evening was enjoyed in reading he club paper and music. The card players were Mr. and Mrs. Will Peters, Mr. and Mrs. J. Dudley, Misses Gertie Williams, Anna Lerin, Mattle Butler, Emma and Gertie Lienhard, Alice Marks, Bird McCune, Messrs. Henry Welte, Alf Cardwell, F. Silver, Roy

A jolly party gathered at the home A jolly party gathered at the nome of Mr. and Mrs. 'Andrew Parrett on Wednesday evening and dispensing with the formality of an invitation, 'ook forcable possession of their premises. The guests were the active and faithful members of the Twenty-seventh ward choir and their visit to Mr. and Mrs. Parrett was intended to be in the nature of a surprise and be in the nature of a surprise and proved a genuine success. Refresh-ments were served and a delightful time spent.

lay anniversary, and she was the reci-cient of many hearty congratulations and good wishes. The house was filled with June roses and delicious refreshments were served.

pects to make them an extended visit. Mrs. W. F. James entertained at '63" on Thursday in honor of Miss Beryi James. The rooms were prettily decor-ated with roses and about 40 guests en-tallies were small shells.

joyed the afternoon. The score-cards were etchings of marine scenes and the

Mrs. A. J. Hosmer entertained at an enjoyable "63" party on Tuesday afternoon, the prizes being won by Mrs. Hyde Dale and Mrs. C. L. Rood. The rooms were bright with a profusion of roses and about 50 guests were present.

The closing exercises of the Reapers' club will be postponed until further no-

Mr. arti Mrs. William Hornbeak are entertaining their sister. Miss Nell Hornbeak of Springfield, Mo., who ex-

Miss Ruth Kirkpatrick is the guest of Miss Carrie Colbath at 25 Fifth East

Miss Jean Odell was hostess at a pretty luncheon on Thursday, covers Barratt and Art Williams. deavor society of the Christian church.

> A pleasant event of the week was the surprise party on Tuesday at which Mrs. Julia C. Howe was the impromptu hostess, about 20 of her friends gathering at her home and spending a delightful afternoon. The occasion was Mrs. Howe's seventy-ninth birth-day anniversary and she was the Miss Salile Leonard, who has been spending the past six months in the east, has returned.

street.